DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

> The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 14 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 14 is narrative in form and lacks sufficient structure to support the functional recitation: "a backrest can be folded over from a traveling position in the direction of the seat part, wherein the seat part can be moved forward away from a pivot point of the backrest during the folding over of the backrest". The structure which goes to make up the device must be clearly and positively specified. The structure must be organized and correlated in such a manner as to present a complete operative device. In line 2 of claim 17, it is unclear if "an adjusting mechanism" is intended to be the same feature as the previously set forth "actuator" (see claim 1).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-13, 15, 16 and 18-23 are allowed.

Claim 14 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Claim 17 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Amendment/Arguments

Applicant's response filed August 26, 2004 has been fully considered. Remaining issues are described above.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. A vehicle seat with a foldable backrest assembly is shown by each of Farelli (4152024), Blasin (4368916), Albrecht (2795265), Smuk (6336679), Hadley (2591426), Probst et al (2856983), Wood (2257583), and Schreiber (1636078).

This office action has not been made final since it includes a new grounds of rejection not necessitated by Applicant's amendment.
